

lift the ban on cellular phones and data transmission. Increase the productivity of business travelers by allowing voice, email, and web communications.